Additional Information

Location and Amenities:

Telford Avenue is situated in the Chells area of Stevenage, placing it conveniently close to a variety of local amenities and transport options. For schools, residents have several choices within a short distance, including Marriotts School, located directly off Telford Avenue, and the nearby Lodge Farm Primary School and Camps Hill Primary School, making it a well-served area for families. In terms of shopping, while local convenience stores like Nisa and Premier are available for daily needs at The Glebe and Hepworth Court, residents can also access the much broader array of high-street shops, department stores, and the Westgate Shopping Centre in Stevenage Town Centre via a regular bus service which provides direct links to Stevenage Bus Station and the main town centre. From there, the Stevenage railway station offers excellent rail connections to London King's Cross, Cambridge, and other major hubs, while drivers can easily access the A1(M) motorway for wider travel.
