THE PLOT

The plot sits in an elevated position adjoining Ty Coch along the Rhiwgoch area and Aberaeron.

The plot measures 30 metres to the roadside and 22 metres at its widest point to the rear, averaging 20 metres within the centre.

On average the plot extends to some 33 metres in length being 26 metres at its shortest.

Please note that the plot is split level and offers an opportunity to provide an exciting design overlooking the countryside to the south and enjoying excellent natural sunlight and at first floor level there is an opportunity to secure coastal views over Cardigan Bay, depending on the design preference of the developer.

The property benefits from outline planning permission Ceredigion County Council reference A210574 granted on 26th January 2023.

PLEASE NOTE that the application is outline planning permission with most matters reserved for approval at detailed design stage.

PLEASE NOTE that the building plot is liable to a 10% affordable housing contribution to the Local Authority where a commuted sum will be due on sale of the completed dwelling.

The value of the commuted sum is yet to be determined as there is no approved final design for the property.

Services

We are advised that there is mains water and drainage connections on the boundary of the property and electric services nearby.

MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS

The successful purchaser will be required to produce adequate identification to prove their identity within the terms of the Money Laundering Regulations. Appropriate examples include: Passport/Photo Driving Licence and a recent Utility Bill. Proof of funds will also be required, or mortgage in principle papers if a mortgage is required.
