Opportunities such as this do not come along very often, and the sale of this exquisite bungalow in one of the most desirable locations in the area is certainly one not to be missed. Situated on the lovely cul de sac called The Moorings the bungalow has a superb layout which naturally flows from room to room, with two good reception rooms and a perfectly positioned conservatory - ideal for enjoying views over the landscaped gardens. Three good double bedrooms with a luxury en suite and stylish shower wet room add to the overall appeal. The historic village of Alrewas provides a wonderful residential location just some five miles from the cathedral city of Lichfield, with a wealth of facilities within the village itself. Having a thriving community atmosphere the village boasts a choice of shops, a range of pubs and everything from a hairdressers to a dentists. The sale of this bungalow really is a wonderful opportunity and an early viewing would be strongly recommended.
