Agents Note: The cottage does require complete refurbishment & the previous owner is thought to have lived here for many years. With this in mind the cottage requires comprehensive refurbishment & any interested buyer will need to qualify that they have: An agreed mortgage in place * A substantial deposit & of course some knowledge of renovating properties. Whilst the cottage is in very basic condition we feel that it is still habitable however as advised any interested buyer will need to have the ability to proceed with funds in place to begin renovating the property. As advised the cottage offers fantastic potential scope to improve & please note the added benefit of owning a good size garage to the rear (which is accessed via an adjacent driveway) your earliest enquiry would be advised.
