

198, London Road Wokingham RG40 1SN

Character and warmth throughout! A charming cottage offered to the market in beautiful condition having been lovingly maintained by the owners. The 934 sq ft of accommodation comprises on the ground floor a cosy living room with a focal fireplace and the hub of this home is the c.26' x 15' kitchen/dining/family room with utility area and modern cloakroom. On the first floor there are three bedrooms and a modern family bathroom. The rear aspect double doors lead out to a mature and secluded rear garden which extends to a total length of c.110' and has several patio areas with the majority laid to lawn with a variety of established shrubs and borders. The property has the modern benefits of uPVC double glazing and gas radiator heating to complement the character of this lovely cottage. The property is located c.2/3 of a mile to Wokingham Market Place with an array of pubs, cafes, restaurants, gyms, a cinema and the train station.
