High Snoad House, Green Lane, Challock, Ashford, Kent. TN25 4BL.

£700,000 Freehold

Property Summary

"I love the feature fireplaces in the reception rooms and the stunning views from the bedrooms across the Challock Lees." - Sam Newman Senior Sales Executive.

High Snoad House is a four bedroom detached house found within the popular village of Challock

Set back from the corner of Green Lane, this extended house dates back to 1919 and the current owners, in the twenty years they have lived here, have created the feeling of a cosy family home.

To the ground floor there are three reception rooms. A large dual aspect lounge, enjoying views onto the front and rear gardens. A dining room with polished wooden flooring and a large study. In all reception room there are fireplaces in keeping of the early 20th century.

The ground floor concludes with a well proportioned conservatory, fully fitted kitchen, utility space and rear lobby.

To the first floor there are four bedrooms, three are good sized doubles. The master bedroom boasts an ensuite shower room. The fourth bedroom is currently used as a music room. On the landing there are built in wardrobes and access to the family bathroom. The first floor front bedrooms offer superb views across the Lees.

The beautiful wrap around garden is a real asset to this property. It is mainly laid to lawn and has been well maintained with a balance of mature shrubs, bushes and trees. There is a large patio area to the rear, ideal for entertaining. There is also a large shed, greenhouse and vegetable patches.

There is a large driveway and garage suitable for multiple vehicles.

Challock village offers a popular primary school, farm shop, church, community hall and public house. For a wider range of amenities, Ashford, Faversham and Canterbury are found within easy reach.

High Snoad House is being sold with no forward chain so please book a viewing today to appreciate everything on offer.
