

A two-story semi-detached house with a brown tiled roof, cream-colored upper walls, and red brick lower walls. The house features a central green door with a small porch, flanked by white-framed windows. To the left is a white double door with a small porch. To the right is a white double door with a small porch. The house has a paved driveway on the left, a gravel path leading to the central door, and a wooden fence on the right. A large green bush is on the left side of the driveway. The house is set against a clear blue sky.

Guide Price £400,000

01707 339146 | welwyngc@country-properties.co.uk

