Grounds & Gardens

- The property is accessed through a wooden five bar gate into a gravel parking forecourt
- A timber framed cart house with an adjoining work shop and a covered log storage area
- The gardens surround the property which are a lovely feature of this forest home. They are mainly laid to lawn with established borders and with a variety of shrubs, flower borders, ground covering plants as well as some small trees and bushes
- The summer house benefits from power and light, two terraces, one being a sandstone raised terrace, which is adjacent to the study
- Steps lead up to a second large raised terrace which is adjacent to the living room which is ideal for alfresco entertaining
- The Cottage has easy pedestrian and cycle access to open forest

The Situation

The house is situated in beautiful gardens and benefits from access to the stunning open New Forest, offering approximately 140,000 acres of natural wood and heathland for the most scenic of walks, cycling and riding. The old medieval market town of Ringwood is just two miles away, providing a comprehensive range of facilities, includes a wide range of independent high street shops, cafes, public houses, restaurants, two leisure centres and excellent state and private schools. For the commuter, the easily accessible A31 provides links to the larger coastal towns of Christchurch, Bournemouth and Poole (approximately 10 miles south via the A338), Southampton (approx. 18 miles east) and London (about two hour drive away, via the M27/M3).

Directions

Exit Ringwood along the A31 heading East, come off just after passing. In Excess Gardens Centre sign posted Shobley. Go down the hill almost to the bottom and you will see the property on your right.

The Local Area

Ringwood is an old market town which is positioned on the edge of the New Forest, yet is just ten minutes drive to the coast and also has easy access to the A31, with London, Southampton and Winchester in one direction and Bournemouth in the other. Ringwood is best known as the home of Ringwood Brewery, it is undergoing a re-identification. The old cattle market has been transformed into a stylish shopping quarter with names such as Lululemon, Hobbs, Joules, Waitrose and Waterstones, and a programme of events that includes live music and farmers' markets. The adjacent high street has retained its character, with a traditional weekly market and a selection of independents, a new artisan bakery, and a variety of decent eateries such as Framptons and Prezzo. Families are attracted by the sense of community and highly regarded secondary school (its sixth form provision rated 'outstanding' by Ofsted). For the commuter, the cities of Salisbury and Southampton are easily reached via the A338 and the A31 and London is only 2 hours distant, via the M3. The larger shopping towns of Bournemouth (10 miles south) and Southampton (20 miles east), both with their airports are easily accessible.
