Bungalows Like This Are Becoming Harder To Find - especially ones with this much space, flexibility, and a setting that balances countryside living with access to everyday essentials and strong transport links.

It's the kind of home that works just as well for a growing family as it does for someone thinking long-term. There's room to spread out, space to entertain, and no stairs to worry about - now or later.

The main living area offers space to relax, gather, or switch off at the end of the day. Whether it's quiet evenings or a house full of guests, there's a natural flow that makes everyday life feel easy.

Recently upgraded with a warm roof, the adjoining conservatory is now a usable, welcoming part of the home all year round - not just when the sun's out.

The kitchen is bright and well-equipped, with sleek cabinetry, loads of prep space, a double oven, and an induction hob - great for those who enjoy cooking or simply want to get the most out of mealtimes.

A separate utility room keeps the washing machine and laundry out of sight.

When it's time to recharge, all four bedrooms are a good size. The main bedroom includes an en-suite, while the remaining rooms offer flexibility - whether you're welcoming guests, setting up a workspace, or accommodating family. The modern bathroom includes a full-sized bath with a shower over - ideal for quick mornings and slow soaks alike.

Outside, the rear garden has a generous patio and a neat lawn - a safe and private space that's easy to enjoy and easy to maintain.

Got a car or two? The driveway offers space for multiple vehicles in tandem, giving you proper off-street parking without taking up garden space. It's practical, low-maintenance, and means you'll never need to fight for a spot on the road. No more wondering where to park when friends or family visit.

The location gives you the best of both worlds - village life with the benefit of local shops, schools, and easy links into Bedford. Train stations at Bedford and Kempston Hardwick are within reach, and the A421, M1 and A1 all offer straightforward road connections.

So why wait? Give the friendly team at Leysbrook a call today and book your viewing - this home won't be on the market for long!
