

This presented three bedroom family home is situated a short walk from the ever popular Drayton Manor High School. The property comes with numerous benefits which include two receptions and conservatory, with three good sized bedrooms and family bathroom upstairs. Potential to extend further is also certainly possible (subject to usual permissions). The bright South facing home is double glazed and gas central heated throughout and outside has a well presented rear private garden backing onto allotments.

A short walk from local shops and restaurants provided by the Greenford Avenue. Transport links are also moments away with regular bus services and both Drayton Green and Hanwell Main Line stations with (with forthcoming Elizabeth Line / Crossrail) at hand offering access to Ealing, Heathrow and Paddington.
