The Property

The front door opens to a charming entrance hall with herringbone brick flooring leading to both a large boot room and the kitchen / family room. The kitchen is beautifully finished with Mark Wilkinson units and a range of integrated appliances. There is also a central island unit with electric hob and breakfast bar. The kitchen forms the heart of the house and has direct access to both the formal sitting room and the more informal, cosy family room. Both the sitting room has a wood burning stove and door to the annexe; both sitting room and family room have doors directly onto the garden. Completing the ground floor is a beautiful drawing room with vaulted ceiling, French windows to the garden and wood burning stove. Beyond the drawing room is a further room currently used as an office.

Upstairs there is a master bedroom suite with main bedroom with vaulted ceiling and built in wardrobes, adjoining shower room and separate dressing room, which also has an adjoining bathroom so could be used as an additional bedroom. Within the main house there are also two further double bedrooms, each of which incorporate a dressing area and adjoining bath / shower room.

The annexe can be reached internally via a door in the sitting room and has its own front door and garden. This flexibility allows the annexe space to either be incorporated within the main house or separated off to provide a self contained three bedroom cottage, complete with kitchen / dining room, sitting room, two shower rooms and a bathroom. The annexe has its own garden, and would be ideal for extended family, long term rental or holiday lets.

The current owners have the annexe set up as a popular holiday let which generates a very healthy income. More details available from the agent.
