ABOUT THE PROPERTY

THE PROPERTY

A well presented three bedroom link semi detached house with attached garage, long driveway, and beautifully stocked lawn gardens to front and rear with delightful sitting out area at the sunny rear southeast facing gardens.

Built around 1960 by respected builders, Connolly Gray, the property has painted rendered elevations beneath a tiled pitched roof with shared central chimney stack, and the accommodation is warmed by gas central heating and benefits from majority PVCu double glazed windows.

In summary the accommodation comprises reception hall, sitting/dining room (22ft long), fitted kitchen, attached garage with utility facilities, small rear glazed entrance porch, three first floor bedrooms, family bathroom and separate cloakroom WC.

We recommend arranging a viewing appointment to appreciate the potential this property has to offer and pleasant view to the rear. Many buyers will also appreciate the advantage of no onward chain.

LOCATION

Falmouth is often voted within the top 10 of the best towns to live in the whole of the UK having a wide range of amenities including a delightful golf course, the acclaimed National Maritime Museum, many charming unique and independent shops and wide range of pubs, restaurants, cafes and bars. It is a colourful harbourside town boasting the third deepest natural harbour in the world which plays host to a multitude of national marine activity and sailing events including the Tall Ships Regatta. Numerous local amenities nearby, including the local Co-operative stores, Boslowick parade of shops, and the petrol station/general store at the bottom of Penmere Hill. Penmere railway station connects Falmouth to the cathedral city of Truro, which in turn provides access to the main line to London Paddington. A regular local bus service is available along Boslowick Road. Additionally, there are three local primary schools
