Description

A beautifully refurbished and superbly located one-bedroom apartment in the heart of Farnham, offering contemporary living with style and convenience. This first-floor apartment is presented in excellent condition throughout, having been thoughtfully modernised to a high standard. The bright and airy open-plan kitchen, living and dining area features attractive wood-effect flooring, integrated appliances, and elegant sash windows offering a southerly outlook across The Borough. The spacious double bedroom benefits from a recessed area ideal for wardrobes, while the stylishly refitted bathroom is fully tiled and finished with sleek, modern fittings. Set within a secure building with communal entrance and stair access, the property also benefits from a long lease (119 years remaining) and is offered to the market with no onward chain. A residents' parking permit is available via Waverley Borough Council. Perfectly situated in a prime central Farnham location, it is just a short stroll from shops, cafes, and the mainline station. This apartment also represents an excellent investment opportunity, with a potential rental income in the region of £1,250 per calendar month.
