A LOO WITH A VIEW! Ever wanted to relax in a freestanding oval bath while gazing through an arched window at the sailing boats on the river beyond? This truly unique property boasts some of the best views in the highly sought after village of Appledore - even from the bathroom!

Enjoying direct water views from every room to the rear of the property, this beautifully presented waterside house in Appledore would make an amazing holiday home, holiday rental or main residence. Being only a short walk from the delightful Appledore quayside it would form the perfect base for exploring all that this quaint fishing village has to offer, and being adjacent to the Harland & Wolff slipway, there's the chance to get up close and personal with a variety of ships, up to and exceeding 100 tons - a boat lovers dream! This stunning house has been a labour of love for the outgoing seller, who is reluctantly leaving the home he completely rebuilt seven years ago, including the addition of two balconies to enjoy the stunning views! Having been granted planning permission to trade as a boutique B&B (although the owner has never exercised this right) and with the layout offering the potential to divide into two maisonettes (STPP) this truly unique property is worthy of immediate inspection to realise your waterside dream!
