

Sunnyside Chapel Lane, LYNDHURST SO43 7FG

£700,000

Situated on the outskirts of Lyndhurst this spacious family home is in need of renovation and will allow the incoming purchaser to stamp their own authenticity on the property.

Description

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and historically was divided into two apartments. On the ground floor are a number of reception rooms with flexibility on their usage. There are four first floor bedrooms with bathroom. Outside to the front of the property is a car parking area. The rear garden is well stocked with shrubs and offers a good deal of seclusion. Built in 1913 by the current vendors Great Grandfather and passed down the generations through the family. This much loved detached house is now in need of renovation and offers the discerning purchaser the chance to return it too a fine family home.
