£875,000

Discreetly located off a little-known private cul-de-sac, this impressive luxury family home extends to nearly 3,000 square feet of accommodation. The generous proportions are spread across the four reception rooms, including a most impressive through family living room, together with dining room, study and sitting room. The quality breakfast kitchen is fully equipped with integrated appliances and a useful utility. The first floor is equally impressive, with five double bedrooms, two of which have luxury en suite shower rooms, and there is a large family bathroom. The setting in the cul-de-sac is delightful and further enhanced by the beautiful landscaped garden, immaculately maintained with some charming sitting areas. Kings Bromley boasts an enviable reputation within the area as a highly desirable residential village with a good local Primary school, shop and pub. It also lies within easy reach of Lichfield Cathedral city centre amenities, and is perfect for commuting with the superb road network which serves the area. To fully appreciate this very impressive family home, an early viewing is strongly recommended.
