Briggs Residential are proud to have been chosen to market Werrington Hall, which has not been available for over three decades and is a superb opportunity to purchase an outstanding family home. This magnificent six bedroom stone residence, which is situated within fantastic private grounds within Werrington village, is elegantly presented and has been greatly improved and loved by the present owners. With a wealth of character, this impressive property, which dates back to 1760, features a 25' x 23' kitchen/family room, a large living room with spectacular walk-in bay window, 19' dining room and relaxing garden room opening onto the formal gardens. Set on three floors, this quite outstanding home has many period features including a stunning master bedroom with further bay window overlooking the grounds of this substantial home. With a gated entrance leading to a large driveway which provides parking for many vehicles and in turn leads to a double open carport and single garage, this home has well-kept, westerly facing formal gardens with a large patio area and steps leading up to the outdoor heated swimming pool with summer house and changing area. There are further lawned gardens enclosed by fencing and mature trees and shrubs. Offered for sale in excellent decorative order throughout, this well cared for Grade II listed Georgian home with its lovely high ceilings and period features is set in the heart of the village of Werrington and viewing is highly advised to appreciate the size of accommodation available and quality of this individual property.
