Location

Wimborne Minster is a highly desirably historic market town with fantastic amenities. There is a good selection of sought-after primary and secondary schools together with many independent retailers, pubs, eateries and community venues that activity contribute to the vibrant local community through their arts and crafts offerings. The Tivoli Theatre dates back to the 1930s and is central to Wimborne's live music scene. The striking Minster dominates the skyline over a plethora of pubs; and with the addition of a local brewery, Wimborne really does offer something for everyone. The property is located on the outskirts of Wimborne town centre within easy reach of the M27 And M3 giving good commuter access to London, Southampton and the New Forest. The towns of Bournemouth and Poole are easily accessible by car or public transport.
