About the Property

As soon as you enter the property, you get an immediate sense of the impressive size of the accommodation with a large reception hallway setting the scene. The hallway leads to a light and bright south-facing living room and double doors afford access to the open-plan kitchen and dining area which is perfectly located for entertaining. A fourth bedroom (currently in use as a reception room) is located on the ground floor and this has independent use of a four-piece bathroom (also located on the ground floor) which could be ideal for guests or older relatives visiting for extended stays.
