A home where timeless charm meets stunning scenery

The ground floor boasts a generous entrance hall with oak flooring and impressive staircase offering a grand welcome, spacious living room also with oak flooring, wood burning stove and bay window, dining room again with oak flooring, fireplace and charming original built in drinks cabinet, modern kitchen featuring a cooking range and open plan to breakfast room, utility room, study, rear entrance lobby with cloak cupboards and WC. Upstairs, the first floor landing leads to five bedrooms, family bathroom and separate WC.

Outside

The gardens are a particularly appealing aspect of this property and extend to approximately 1.5 acres. They are predominantly laid to expansive lawns, complemented by mature shrubbery beds, established trees and a small orchard. To the rear of the property lies a charming landscaped area, featuring paved and gravelled sections. There is a large shed and the double garage with log store is approached over a sweeping driveway from the lane which extends to the front of the property providing ample parking and for a good number of vehicles. Extending beyond the garden, lies approximately 5 acres of private woodland offering a rare and enchanting natural retreat providing both tranquility and a sense of seclusion. This expansive area is home to a rich variety of mature trees and is abundant with wildlife. Throughout the seasons, the woodland transforms from bluebells and wildflowers in spring to a golden tapestry of leaves in autumn, creating a constantly evolving landscape that enhances the charm and character of the property.
