The Lodge, Plot 5 Lysways Lane, Hanch, Lichfield, Staffordshire, Ws13 8HH

£795,000

Forming part of the luxury development at Hanch, this stunning single storey barn conversion offers the best of all worlds, being very generously proportioned but also all on one level. The two front facing entrance doors open to independent reception areas, each with the beautiful Camaro herringbone flooring creating the most welcoming of entrances. The property has a huge family living room, together with an equally generous family dining kitchen which boasts integral Neff appliances along with quartz work tops and stylish fittings. In addition there is a useful utility room, similarly fitted to the kitchen, which incorporates a W.C. The three double bedrooms are all very well proportioned, together with the luxury family bathroom. Benefiting from efficient underfloor electric heating throughout and with some useful outbuildings including a four bay store and brick garden room, the property also has a fenced and lawned rear garden. Being one of just five properties on this highly regarded development, and the only one which is single store, an early viewing would be strongly recommended.
