Description

This versatile four bedroom semi-detached house offers adaptable dual accommodation that provides a ground floor bedroom suite/annexe with small kitchenette. Presented in excellent decorative order, the property has recently benefitted from a newly fitted kitchen, decoration and floor coverings throughout. The adaptable accommodation provides a kitchen with space for a breakfast table, large living/dining room, as well as a one bedroom suite with living room and kitchenette to the ground floor. The first floor provides three bedrooms, the main of excellent proportion with a separate en-suite and lovely views to the front. Outside the gardens are mature and established and offer a good deal of privacy being set to both the front and rear. The whole is within a desirable location just a short distance from the primary school and station. Viewing is highly recommended.
