

Superbly designed and renovated by the current owners this FOUR double bedroom detached family home comes to the market in excellent turn key condition. Located in an ideal setting, close to all the major access routes of Maidenhead this stunning property offers ample and versatile living and entertaining space over two floors

To the ground floor, the elegant hallway leads to a stylish and well appointed kitchen/diner with bi fold doors providing access to the patio and garden. Within the kitchen, there is a central island, an array of floor to ceiling cupboards and space for large formal dining table. Behind the kitchen is a very useful utility room leading to the garage which has been converted into a gym/storage space. The main reception room is highlighted by a feature fireplace and enjoys views out onto the garden, there is also a spacious bedroom with fully fitted en suite bathroom, a further reception room and a wc.

From the hallway, an oak staircase leads up to the first floor where there are two well sized bedrooms both with built in storage and a well appointed family bathroom. The principal bedroom has a real wow factor and benefits from a lovely dual aspect, a dressing area and a large en suite bathroom

Externally, the south facing garden is mainly set to lawn bordered with mature shrubs and trees and there are two patio areas to enjoy. Under a wooden pagoda which benefits from lighting and power, there is space for a hot tub or bar. The property also features a gated entrance, ample parking and CCTV

This immaculately presented property has been expertly finished to an exacting standard and we feel would make a wonderful home for the contemporary family
