Cliff House occupies an elevated position just a short stroll from the centre of Ashwell and the picturesque Ashwell Springs, this distinguished period residence effortlessly combines timeless elegance with practical family living.

This handsome double-fronted home offers both curb appeal and convenience, featuring off-street parking and two expansive, beautifully maintained formal gardens. Step through the impressive vestibule to the front door—a fitting introduction to the many original features that have been thoughtfully preserved throughout.

Soaring ceilings and sash windows bathe the interior in natural light, enhancing the sense of space and grandeur. Two symmetrical reception rooms, each with striking feature fireplaces, create a formal yet welcoming setting for entertaining. At the heart of the home, a spacious kitchen/diner provides the perfect hub for family life and gatherings.

The ground floor also benefits from a practical utility/cloakroom and a separate office with direct access to the garden—an ideal retreat for work or quiet reflection. On the lower ground floor, a dedicated cinema room and an additional reception area, currently used as a gym, offer flexible living options to suit modern lifestyles.

Upstairs, four generously proportioned bedrooms continue the theme of light and space, complemented by a stylish four-piece family bathroom that blends contemporary comfort with classic charm.

This exceptional home is a rare opportunity to enjoy period living with modern functionality in one of Hertfordshire's most sought-after villages. Early viewing is highly recommended.

Agent's Notes

Ashwell is a highly regarded picturesque village set amidst rolling Hertfordshire countryside. The village is steeped in history with many delightful character properties and the historic St Mary's church in the heart of the village. The village boasts a number of excellent facilities including a renowned bakers, butcher, village store, chemist, dental surgery, doctors surgery and three popular public houses. The village primary school is also highly regarded with connections to local secondary schools. The railway station serving Ashwell and The Mordens is about 1.5 miles from the village centre with services to London Kings Cross and Cambridge.
