About the Location

Tucked away within an exclusive gated development on a private road, Chandlers Mews offers both privacy and convenience in equal measure. Despite its discreet setting, a wealth of amenities are just moments away from fine restaurants and fitness centres to everyday shopping facilities. A short stroll leads you to the fashionable heart of Ashley Cross, where boutique shops, vibrant cafés and a thriving restaurant culture create an enviable village atmosphere. For relaxation, the award-winning golden beaches, the tranquil waters of Poole Harbour and the cosmopolitan centres of Bournemouth and Poole are all close at hand.

Highly regarded local schools, including Courthill and Baden Powell, are also within easy reach.

Perfectly placed for commuters, the location could not be more ideal. The nearby mainline railway station provides direct services to London Waterloo, while excellent road connections via the M27 open up swift access to London, the Home Counties and beyond. For international travel, both Bournemouth and Southampton Airports are conveniently accessible and Poole Harbour's ferry terminal offers effortless connections to the Channel Islands and mainland Europe.
