Description

On a desirable, level plot within the village of Wedmore, this inviting, modern, five-bedroom home, with its pretty stone façade, practical layout and enviable gardens, offers potential inside and out for the next owners to make their mark.

All the main living spaces overlook the extensive rear garden. The sitting room spans the depth of the house, with windows front and back, and benefits from a log burning stove making it a cosy winter retreat. Sliding doors from the dining room extend this sociable entertaining space into the garden on warmer summer days. The large kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units with built-in double oven, fridge, freezer and dishwasher, and there is ample space for a farmhouse style kitchen table. Further storage and space for other appliances can be found in the adjacent utility room. The ground floor also houses a study/fifth bedroom and an understairs WC.

The four main bedrooms are upstairs. The principal bedroom has deep, built-in wardrobes and plenty of space for other furniture, and it benefits from an ensuite bathroom. The other three bedrooms look out across the back garden, they all have built-in wardrobes, and they share a family bathroom.

Outside

This attractive stone-built house is set back from the road with mature gardens, garage and driveway providing parking for numerous vehicles and accessed via a five-bar gate set within low stone walling. The extensive rear garden is mainly level and laid to lawn bordered by mature flower beds, shrubs and trees and enclosed by fencing. Paved patio and pathways encircle the property, providing easy access and an outside area in which to relax or entertain.
