The front has been laid to block paving to provide plenty off street parking. Enclosed behind soft laurel hedgerows, there is further planting in the flower beds. The Holt offers unrestricted street parking.

WHAT THE FAMILY SAY

We have loved our 9 years in this fantastic close. It has been a safe environment to grow our family. The nighbours are amazing, we have a street Whatsapp group and there is also a Facebook group for the small estate. We have enjoyed the woodland walks, the short walks to the shops and the benefits of this great town. We will miss this home and wish the next owners will be as happy as we were!

ABOUT PANSHANGER

Panshanger was a large country house located between the outer edge of Hertford and Welwyn Garden City. It was originally owned by Earl Cowper who later became Lord Chancellor of Great Britain. After seven generations, with no heir, the estate was sold and demolished c.1953 Panshanger Park is presently owned by Lafarge. Although Panshanger House was demolished, the orangery, nursery garden wall and stables remain along with a number of other cottages and estate buildings, all of which are listed by English Heritage. Residential housing was established in the area in the seventies. Moneyhole park playing fields and Panshanger woodlands are within walking distance. Local amenities include a small parade of shops including a Doctors surgery, Chemist, Post office, Hair salon, Beauticians. There is also a Morrison's supermarket and petrol station. Buses into town are every half an hour, Monday to Saturday.
