ROOM DESCRIPTIONS

WELCOME TO HEATHER ROAD

A charming welcome as you drive down this tree lined West Side street. Park up and admire the red brick facade which sits behind a hedgerow. A home which has been loved and cared for by the same family for over five decades. Most of the neighbours have also lived in their homes for many decades. The ground floor offers a large entrance hall, offering under stairs storage and a handy w/c. There is a living room which features a dual aspect to the front and rear. This is a great size room which can include a dining area. The kitchen breakfast room includes a range of wall and base units, in addition there is a pantry and a handy door that leads out to the garden. Upstairs you will find a landing with window for light, an airing cupboard and loft access. Bedrooms one and two are large doubles and feature a rear aspect whilst bedroom three features a front aspect. The family bathroom has been adapted to include a shower.

TOUR THE GROUNDS

The most charming rear garden which is mostly laid to lawn. There is a patio area to enjoy to capture the south easterly facing aspect. For storage, there is a large brick built shed, cupboard and timber shed. For convenience, there is a covered passageway which leads out to the front. The front garden is low maintenance and offers potential for a future driveway (subject to planning and estates management consent). Heather road offers residents and visitors street parking by way of permit.

WHAT THE FAMILY SAY

ABOUT THE WEST SIDE

Welwyn Garden City bears the legacy of Sir Ebenezer Howard, who founded the town in the 1920s and developed it into a designated new town in 1948. Conceptualized as a harmonious blend of urban conveniences and rural tranquility, Welwyn Garden City offered residents an escape from the hustle and bustle of overcrowded cities to a haven of sunshine, leafy lanes, open countryside, and inviting cafes. The town's design emphasized creating a healthy and vibrant environment for its inhabitants. Today, Welwyn Garden City's town centre stands as a vibrant hub teeming with activity and features an array of shops to cater to various tastes and needs. The focal point is the Howard Shopping Centre, home to popular high street retailers. In town, you will find John Lewis, complemented by convenient supermarket options including Waitrose and Sainsburys on the town's outskirts. Additionally, a charming cinema venue offers the latest film releases for entertainment seekers.
