FULL DESCRIPTION

A stunning three bedroom terraced character cottage enjoying an enviable central location, situated just off the famous main street and the many attractions in the sought after literary village of Haworth. Set over three floors, this Haworth cottage has been thoughtfully converted to provide superb facilities, yet it still retains the immense character and charm of the original dwelling. The property is in a fabulous location, with excellent restaurants and good old fashioned traditional pubs on the doorstep. Steeped in literary history and formerly home to the Bronte sisters, Haworth has much to offer including a variety of walks. The deceptively spacious accommodation comprises of a sitting room with windows to the front and rear, character stone fireplace, radiator and entrance door to the front. There is a double bedroom on this level having feature character ceiling beams, windows to both the front and rear aspect, and having an en-suite shower room with three piece suite. To the lower ground floor is the dining room having feature mullion windows, character stone fireplace and entrance door to the rear. The dining kitchen is a real feature of this property having stone flagged flooring, attractive base and wall mounted units with complimenting worktop surfaces, integrated appliances to include oven, hob, fridge, freezer, automatic washing machine and dishwasher, as well as a wood burning stove in feature fireplace. There is a downstairs wash room situated off the kitchen. To the first floor the master bedroom has a beautiful feature apex ceiling beam, feature stone fireplace and fitted wardrobes, and has a spacious en-suite bathroom with four piece suite comprising of a corner bath, shower cubicle, WC, wash hand basin. Externally the property enjoys views to the rear, and a pleasant paved seating area to the front, a block paved driveway provides parking for two vehicles. An ideal holiday let, viewing essential to fully appreciate. EPC rating is E.
