A postwar, four bedroom, semi-detached home positioned within this delightful hamlet on the edge of Horton Village boasting a generous plot, extensive off road parking and large detached double garage with workshop.

Description

Haythorne Common sits on the fringes of Horton Village and this particular home is within a row of postwar cottages built in the mid 1940's for the local authority. The home boasts traditional accommodation suited to family living which comprises of a living room, kitchen breakfast room, utility room, cloakroom and conservatory to the ground floor and four bedrooms and two bathrooms to the first floor. One of the bathrooms serves as an en-suite and home is entirely double glazed throughout and benefits from an oil fired heating system.

Ground Rent Details: Benefit of a wayleave from the electric cable that runs over the property's land.

Outside

The home sits on a plot approaching 1/3 acre and is split into two titles of which both are being conveyed. There is an extensive block paved driveway which leads to the front elevation where there is forecourt style parking for several vehicles and the driveway in turn leads to the right hand side of the property to the rear garden where there is a detached double garage. The front garden is split into two principal areas creating a charming ‘secret’, garden. The rear garden is secluded and there is an elevated deck spanning the rear elevation of the property and this overlooks the garden which is laid to lawn and a generous kitchen garden. The detached double garage is expansive and has an attached workshop ideal for DIY enthusiasts and in our opinion could easily be converted into studio accommodation.
