54 Mill House, Hurst Green, Brightlingsea, Colchester, Essex. CO7 0EH.

This impressive Victorian home built in the 1850's offers stunning views of the river and Blackwater estuary. Being an extremely rare addition to the market situated on the popular area of Hurst Green in the Waterside town of Brightlingsea. The property offers excellent potential with a wealth of history, the rear part of the property being formally the town bakery which was attached to a post mill situated in the garden. This charming home retains a wealth of character having being sympathetically restored by the current owners with new double glazed windows in keeping with the original style. The generous plot, with driveway, seating area with raised borders, tack room and a fabulous garden laid to lawn with established shrub and perennial borders, low hedging affording breathtaking views.
