Description

This is a particularly unique third floor apartment, in that the ceilings are much higher than normal, giving an especially light and airy feel. There are good sized sash windows to both front and rear, with working shutters. This adds an element of spaciousness and light to the property's already very well-proportioned rooms.

The two large bedrooms are to the front, with wonderful views over the lawns of The Royal Crescent. The large drawing room is to the rear, with a period fireplace, together with the kitchen/breakfast room.

The property also has the benefit of two large communal storage cupboards on the second floor, which can be used for the storage of bikes and suitcases.
