Description

A beautiful stone-built character cottage with three bedrooms, garage and garden in this sought-after Somerset village. Income potential as rental or holiday let, and is available with vacant possession.

The cottage is recently decorated in a neutral palette throughout. The spacious living room enjoys a sunny southerly aspect and the feature fireplace is a lovely focal point for the room. To the rear of the property is the dining room which leads into a small lobby area which could be used for storage or as a study. The kitchen has pine base and wall cupboards and is the heart of the home with a gas-fired Rayburn range which also powers the central heating. There is space for an electric cooker if required, a dishwasher and washing machine. A stable door leads onto the driveway to the side of the cottage. In the hall there is under stairs storage and the staircase has wooden banisters and rails.

On the first floor there are three double bedrooms, each with its own character and glorious roof beams showing the real history of the building. The bedrooms share a sizeable family bathroom, comprising a white suite including a panelled bath with an electric shower over it.

Outside

This semi-detached property has a small pretty front garden bordered by stone walls with steps leading to the front door. To the side and through a stone arch is a parking space for one car in front of the single garage with an up and over door, power and light and a boarded storage area above. A raised rear garden to the side of the property offers a lovely space for relaxing or dining with a lawned area, shrubs and storage space behind the garage.
