LA MANGA CLUB

£425.000

Apartment

FOR SALE

Perched at the top of the sought after Coto del Golf Terrazas community, this exceptional three bedroom, two bathroom apartment offers privacy, tranquility, and year round sunshine in the prestigious La Manga Club resort. Situated on the peaceful north side of the resort, the property enjoys the warmth of the winter sun while benefiting from a quiet residential setting and the intimacy of a small, well maintained community. The spacious interior is designed for comfort and effortless indoor outdoor living. The bright and airy living area is flooded with natural light through sliding doors that open directly onto a generous south facing sun terrace, the perfect space for relaxing, dining, and enjoying the beautiful golf course surroundings. The well appointed kitchen offers ample storage and generous workspace, ideal for entertaining guests. With direct access to the terrace, serving friends and family is both easy and enjoyable. The apartment comprises three good sized bedrooms and two bathrooms. The master suite features an ensuite bathroom and elegant French doors that open onto the south-facing terrace, allowing you to wake up to sunshine and golf views. Additional features include two allocated indoor parking spaces, with the flexibility to create a storage area within one space. Residents also enjoy access to a superb indoor heated swimming pool, complete with separate male and female changing facilities, all set against spectacular views of the golf course. This top floor residence combines privacy, light filled living spaces, and excellent amenities in one of La Manga Club's most desirable communities, an ideal permanent home, or winter retreat.
