The Property

The property is a particularly well-located detached family home set within attractive grounds of approximately 1.72 acres on Castle Hill Lane which is a Forest track. The property occupies one of the finest locations within the New Forest and provides a fantastic living environment.

At ground floor level the property offers a particularly welcoming feel with an attractive reception hall with fireplace housing log burner. The drawing room is well-proportioned and provides a really good formal entertaining space and, with access onto the terracing, links in well with the outside gardens. A dining room towards the rear of the property has an outlook over the second paddock and a versatile playroom/home office provides the ideal space for working from home. The extended kitchen area creates a fantastic open plan kitchen/breakfast/family room with lovely views over the grounds and garden. This is a fantastic everyday living space which has really enhanced the property. The kitchen area comes with a range of floor and wall mounted units including cupboard and drawer sections with work surfaces over. The breakfast area enjoys a fantastic outlook over the grounds and the vaulted ceiling gives a true feeling of bright and airy space with two sets of French doors leading to the outside. There is plenty of room for sofas and chairs, creating a real hub of the property. The downstairs accommodation is completed by an open boot room/utility room with rear access, ideal for coming back from muddy walks with your boots and a further downstairs shower room.

Stairs from the main hallway lead to a first floor landing where you find five double bedrooms, two of which have en-suites and the further three double bedrooms being serviced by large four piece family bathroom. Each bedroom offers stunning countryside views over your grounds and gardens with the principle bedroom benefiting from a set of French doors opening onto a Juliet Balcony offering immediate views from your bed.

Grounds & Gardens

The property is approached via a gateway which opens out onto a gravel drive providing plenty of parking as well access to the garage/barn. The property sits very centrally within its ground and is surrounded by attractive gardens, which include a large terrace area providing a fantastic space for entertaining and relaxing. The gardens immediately adjoining the property are arranged in a cottage style, providing a great degree of interest for throughout the year. Beyond the lawns and the drive there is a large paddock, which provides suitable turnout for the equestrian enthusiast. There is a second paddock towards the rear of the property and also stabling and tack room. The barn has been converted to an art studio and could easily be used as a large office for working from home. A ladder provides access up to the first floor where there is a huge area for storage. This barn is a real benefit to the property and offers multiple potential uses. A key benefit of being located in this prime area is the ability to ride out from the property onto open forest providing some of the best hacking in the country.

The Local Area

The first Spencers New Forest office was established here in Burley, a honeypot village that feels untouched by time with its traditional cafes, cider farm, gift shops and tales of old smuggling routes, witches and dragons.

This is the New Forest on holiday as imagined by visitors: quaint and old-fashioned with ponies wandering down the high street. In Burley there's a perpetual feeling of having escaped, that you are away from it all, especially as it is tucked in the lee of wooded slopes. There's a lovely sense of community and a range of activities to enjoy locally including cycling, horse riding, coarse fishing and the Burley Golf Club with a nine-hole heathland course.
