Wentwood, The Went, Greysouthen, Cockermouth, Cumbria CA13 0UQ

Price Guide: £575,000

LOCATION

Greysouthen is located in a conservation area, between the towns of Cockermonth and Workington, with excellent commuter links to both via the A66. Falling within the catchment of the highly rated Eaglesfield Paddle Academy and Cockermonth secondary schools, the village also has a very active village hall. The delights of the Lake District National Park are all within just a short drive.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Wentwood is a spacious and well presented, five bedroom, detached residence, tucked away in a quiet woodland setting on the edge of the popular village of Greysouthen. Offering flexible, family friendly accommodation with multiple reception rooms and a more than generous private plot, this is a property well capable of becoming 'home' to the largest of families.

The accommodation briefly comprises lounge with multifuel stove, dining room with space for ten around the table, comfortable sitting room with open fireplace, breakfast kitchen, study, utility room, downstairs cloak room, five well proportioned double bedrooms, a dressing room - which could be reconfigured to provide an en-suite shower room for two of the bedrooms, and a four piece, family bathroom.

Externally, the private gated driveway leads from the road to an ample parking area and continues behind the property to a detached barn. The large wraparound plot provides immense privacy, laid mainly to lawn, with mature trees, shrubs and perennials. Attached to the garden is a private woodland area planted with a wide variety of mature, native trees.
