Description

61a High Street is an elegant Grade II listed character property from the Georgian period and as such enjoys the features you would expect to find, for example generous ceiling heights, decorative cornicing, sash windows and open fireplaces. The extensive accommodation expands 2000 sq.ft. over three floors and could be configured as having up to six bedrooms, four reception rooms, 3 bath/shower rooms and a good sized kitchen. Although currently configured as one substantial family home, the amount of space and layout allows for multi-generational use. On the ground floor a welcoming private entrance hall and staircase give rise to the first floor where the majority of the reception spaces are. The sitting room and dining room are interconnected by double glass panelled doors, enjoy tall ceilings and large sash windows making this a fantastic space for entertaining. There is a study/bedroom 6, kitchen and bedroom 5 on this level. An elegant turn staircase with a large light well give rise to a spacious second floor landing where there are four comfortable bedrooms, two bathrooms and a master bedroom enjoying an en-suite. The property is stylishly presented throughout and offers enormous versatility to be configured in a way that best suits ones needs. The property also enjoys an area of garden plus two allocated off road parking spaces and is located on the attractive medieval High Street with its range of amenities including privately owned shops, supermarkets, pubs, restaurants, doctors, dentists, vets and a mainline station with regular services to London Charing Cross. The area is well served for schools, both private and comprehensive at primary and secondary levels. Viewing is highly recommended.
