56 Empress Matilda Gardens, Old Wolverton, Milton Keynes, MK12 5F

Location

Old Wolverton offers a unique blend of history, character, and modern convenience, making it an attractive place to live in Milton Keynes. Nestled between Wolverton and Stony Stratford, this area is known for its charming period properties, converted industrial buildings, and modern developments, all surrounded by scenic canal walks and green spaces. The Grand Union Canal runs through Old Wolverton, providing picturesque walking and cycling routes, while Wolverton Mill and the nearby Ouse Valley Park offer further outdoor spaces to enjoy. Despite its peaceful setting, the area is well-connected, with Wolverton Train Station just a short distance away, offering direct services to London Euston in under 40 minutes. The nearby A5 and M1 (Junction 14) make commuting by car just as convenient. Local amenities include Wolverton's high street, supermarkets, and independent shops, while Stony Stratford's historic market town is only minutes away, offering cosy pubs, cafes, and boutique stores. With excellent transport links, a rich history, and access to beautiful countryside, Old Wolverton is a fantastic place to call home for those seeking a balance between character and convenience.
