The Property

Believed to have been built in 1923, the property has been extended in more recent times to provide accommodation extending to 1924 sq ft.

An enclosed porchway to the front opens into a central reception hall with seating area with views across the open forest and access to a cloakroom and stairs lead to the first floor. From here glazed doors lead into the generous sitting room/dining room with herringbone oak flooring, bi fold doors out onto the rear terrace and garden.

To the other side of the hall is a contemporary style kitchen with quartz work surfaces and an abundance of wall and base level storage units complemented by a large kitchen island supplying further storage. There is space for a large range cooker and fridge/freezer. The rear wall features brick slips and large window with views over the rear garden. To the front of the kitchen is a seating area, again with views across the open forest, and access to a useful boot room with door to the front driveway. Further access to the rear garden is via a stable style door from the kitchen.

The first floor offers four double size bedrooms set off a generous landing providing good storage with the main and second bedrooms to the front of the property enjoying far reaching views across the open forest. The main bedroom boasts dressing areas and a good size en-suite with four piece suite and radiator.

The three further bedrooms are serviced by a shower room with WC and wash basin which completes the first floor.

The Local Area

Brockenhurst is the largest village in the New Forest, boasting a thriving and lively community with all the necessary essentials of a proper working village, including a butcher, bakery, greengrocer, cafes and tea houses, plus services such as a doctor, dentist and post office. In addition, the village boasts an 18 hole championship golf course, a luxurious spa and a number of highly regarded hotels including the Balmer Lawn, the Pig and Careys Manor, all of which offer fine dining Restaurants.

In Brockenhurst the New Forest is all around you and wild ponies, deer and cows roam at will. The North and South Weirs streams join and as one flow through Brockenhurst. In Brookley Road in the warmer months of the year the stream flows across the road, commonly referred to as The Splash. There is a second ford in the Waters Green area of the village and this flows continuously throughout the year. From beyond this the Weirs stream meets the river formed by the Blackwater and Ober Water to become the Lymington River.

It is Brockenhurst's mainline station (service into London Waterloo approximately 90 minutes) that turns the dream of a country idyll into reality for those working up in London and makes Brockenhurst village a property hot spot.
