GENERAL

The property comprises of a detached 2 storey dwelling set within some 10.8 Acres or thereabouts of garden and agricultural land. The main homestead sits centrally within the land block benefiting from independent private access from the adjoining county lane.

The main house offers substantial living and bedroom accommodation with outstanding views over the adjoining countryside. The house is in need of modernisation in places.

Supporting the main house are a range of agricultural buildings and stables, some of which are in need of attention.

A central track from the adjoining county road leads to the fields with connecting gates within the field boundaries linking all fields.

The fields are in good order, being well maintained with good level of stock proof fencing and hedged in boundaries to all fields.

The track that serves the main house continues along the western boundaries of the property linking to the council road that leads to Penbontrhydyfoddau and later on to Llangrannog.
