DESCRIPTION

Set in an idyllic location, on the side of a gentle valley, offering spectacular views over the Somerset countryside, is Wesley Cottage. This deceptively spacious property has generous living accommodation and four double bedrooms with an attached two bedroom annex. Set in a plot of just over 1 acre with mature gardens, paddock and stabling the property also benefits from a double garage, store and ample parking. Offered with no onward chain.

From the drive, a porch leads to the main door which opens into the spacious kitchen and dining room. The kitchen, with slate effect tiled floor, has an array of Shaker Style cabinets with integrated double oven, ceramic hob, under-counter fridge and dishwasher. The cabinets are topped with granite worktops with inset double stainless steel sinks and a view over the garden and countryside beyond. Open to the kitchen is the dining room, a generous room with slate effect tiled floor and dual aspect views. At the far end of this room is a lockable door leading through to the annex. From the kitchen a door leads through to an inner hallway with large store cupboard, ideal for coats and shoes and a large, shelved pantry. The sitting room, formerly a Wesleyan Chapel, runs across the front of the property and benefits from two bay windows and solid oak flooring. The room is naturally divided by a small step offering two areas to relax. At one end is a fireplace with woodburning stove and at the other is a further fireplace currently with an electric stove in situ. The utility room, with country style cabinets and wooden worktops has a Belfast sink, space and plumbing for a washing machine and views of the garden to the rear. A floor-mounted oil-fired boiler provides zoned heating throughout the property, also within the utility room is a separate WC with vanity wash-hand basin and a large cupboard, currently used for storage but previously used as a shower cubicle, with all the plumbing still in place to re-instate if required. A door leads out to the large patio area and garden beyond.

Stairs lead from the inner hall to a bright landing with high ceilings, Velux windows and exposed modern oak beams. From the landing a glazed door leads to the conservatory with electric underfloor heating, this lovely bright room offers plenty of space for comfortable furniture and offers the perfect spot to sit and look out over the garden and paddock. Double doors lead out over a wooden deck to the garden. The landing leads to four double bedrooms, one ensuite, and the family bathroom. The family bathroom is a bright room with high sloping ceiling and Velux window, it comprises; 'P' shaped bath with waterfall shower over, WC, wash basin and airing cupboard. The first of the bedrooms, currently presented as a twin has a view to the front aspect with views over the valley. The second of the bedrooms is generous in size and has two windows with a front aspect and an exposed wall as a focal point. From the landing a step leads down to the third bedroom which has a small cupboard housing the electricity consumer unit and has extensive views over the flagstone patio to the valley beyond. The principal bedroom is generous in size, once again with a dual aspect and stunning views of the gardens, paddock and valley, and benefits from fitted, mirrored wardrobes and an en-suite bathroom. The ensuite comprises; a bath, a shower cubicle, WC and wash basin.

The property has a full-fibre 200Mb connection to the internet

ANNEX

The annex can be used for multi-generational living or as a holiday let, as it can be completely separate if desired. It can be accessed either by a lockable door from the dining room or by its own separate front door with useful porch. Upon entering via the front door is a tiled hallway leading to a room formerly used as the kitchen. The current owners use the room as a study but the electrics and plumbing are in place to easily re-install a kitchen if desired. The room benefits from a dual aspect with views over the valley to the front and garden to the rear and has an alcove with wooden beam. From the hall is the bathroom comprising bath with overhead mixer shower, WC, wash basin and towel radiator. The sitting room is a good size, tiled floor and is again dual aspect with lovely views and a brick chimney breast with inset 'Jetmaster' open fire as the focal point.

From the sitting room stairs lead up to the first floor with two double bedrooms one benefitting from a dual aspect and both having exposed beams. The smaller of the two rooms has an airing cupboard housing the hot water cylinder for the annex.
