Situated on the first floor of an elegant Georgian period building, this impressive apartment is located in the heart of the highly desirable Montpelier and Clifton Hill Conservation Area. Just moments from Brighton Station, the seafront and the city's vibrant shopping and dining scene, the location is ideal for both commuters and those seeking to enjoy central Brighton living. The west-facing living room is a standout feature, boasting floor-to-ceiling sash windows that open onto two Juliet balconies, flooding the space with natural light and offering an airy, open feel. There is also ample space for a dining area. A separate kitchen sits just off the living room and is fitted with a range of units, space for appliances and its own Juliet balcony with a similar floor-to-ceiling window. To the rear of the apartment is a spacious double bedroom, with plenty of room for a king-size bed, freestanding wardrobe and additional furnishings. The bathroom, accessed via the hallway, includes a bath with overhead shower, basin and WC. The property further benefits from two generous internal storage cupboards, as well as a separate store/utility room accessed via the communal hallway. With a window and natural light, this versatile space is ideal as a home office or for additional storage. Offered to the market with no onward chain and a lease term of approximately 175 years remaining, this charming apartment combines classic architecture with practical modern living in one of Brighton's most sought-after areas.
