BELTON DUFFEY

73 THE STREET, HINDRINGHAM, NORFOLK, NR21 0PR

A well presented cottage of character with parking and garden pleasantly situated in the heart of this sought after village. No onward chain.

DESCRIPTION

73 The Street is a charming cottage of character, offered for sale with no onward chain, situated in the sought after village of Hindringham and benefitting from parking for 2 vehicles plus an attractive cottage garden.

The accommodation, which does require some cosmetic attention, comprises cosy sitting room, well fitted kitchen dining room, ground floor bathroom, rear hallway, store room/utility and two first floor bedrooms, one with en-suite wc. A wood burning stove in the kitchen dining room fires a number of radiators on the ground floor and the remainder of the property has thermostatically controlled economy 7 electric heating.

This attractive property would make an ideal first purchase or second/holiday home and is offered for sale chain free.

SITUATION

Hindringham is a large parish covering 3,314 acres and is dominated by the imposing church which sits 200 feet above sea level and can be seen for miles around. This conservation village also has a small primary school and a village hall/social club which sells food and alcohol. Fakenham, Holt and Wells-next-the-Sea are all roughly equidistant from the village making it an excellent point from which to explore all that this attractive part of north Norfolk has to offer.

Binham, 2 miles to the north, is a most attractive, historical village with the celebrated public house, The Chequers Inn, The Parlour farm cafe and the atmospheric Benedictine Priory ruins. Many of the village's cottages were built with stones from the ruins and, today, the Priory hosts summer concerts which make the most of the amazing acoustics.
