Owner's View

We've loved living here for the sense of community and the friendly neighbours, as well as the character and cosy feel the property offers despite its spacious rooms. The sizeable social kitchen has been perfect for family life and entertaining, while the garden enjoys sunshine throughout the day. With Town Fields quite literally on the doorstep and the town centre and local amenities close by, the location is ideal. There's also plenty of additional storage space, making this a truly practical and welcoming family home.
