DESCRIPTION

A delightful Grade II listed stone cottage, full of charm and character, tucked within a small mid-terrace setting in the hamlet of Woolverton. The property has been thoughtfully updated while retaining its period features and offers a beautifully presented one-bedroom home with a private garden and garage.

The front door opens into a welcoming sitting room, showcasing exposed and treated ceiling timbers, areas of natural stonework, and a feature wooden fireplace. A large window brings light to the room, complemented by wood-effect flooring, a radiator, and useful storage beneath the stairs. An open archway leads through to the kitchen/dining room, which has been recently refurbished to a high standard. Fitted with a range of contemporary wall and base units beneath slate work surfaces, the kitchen includes a ceramic sink with mixer tap, a built-in oven with four-ring halogen hob and extractor hood above, integrated fridge/freezer, washer/dryer, and a pull-out spice rack. A rear-facing window provides garden views, while a door gives access outside. The dining area has space for a table and seating, along with a radiator.

On the first floor, the landing leads to a generous double bedroom with two front-facing Georgian-style windows, fitted wardrobes offering ample storage, and access to the loft space. The room benefits from two radiators and recessed lighting. The en suite bathroom is well-appointed with a freestanding double-ended bath and shower attachment, pedestal wash basin, low-level WC, part-tiled walls in blush tones, heated towel rail, and a rear window.

Outside the rear garden is arranged with a brick-paved patio, steps rising to a graveled area, and mature hedge and fence borders offering privacy. A gate at the far end leads to a path with access to a single garage en bloc, fitted with an up-and-over door.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
