2 Yew Tree Cottages, The Street, Pluckley, Kent. TN27 0QS.

£1,450 pcm

Property Summary

"As you walk through this cottage, you cannot help but feel this property has so many stories to tell". - Philip Jarvis, Director.

A Grade II listed cottage arranged over three floors. With many character features it is believed it have formed part of what was originally a larger property with a close relationship with the Dering family of Pluckley.

The accommodation is currently arranged with a kitchen/breakfast room and sitting room downstairs. A large feature part stone staircase leads to two bedrooms and the bathroom and then on the second floor is a large main bedroom that could alternatively be used as a second sitting room.

Outside there is a garden area laid to lawn with two decking areas plus a large shed and parking space for one car.

Pluckley is an ever popular village with a shop, primary school, two public houses and a railway station. The larger villages of Charing, Lenham and Headcorn are all easily accessed. The market town of Ashford and county town of Maidstone are also both access within a thirty minute drive.
