Description:

Located just south of Studfold between Horton in Ribblesdale and Settle in the Yorkshire Dales National Park. This proposed barn conversion has good roadside access directly off Austwick Road with access track which was the original road to Horton-in-Ribblesdale.

Despite the rural setting of this property, local amenities include a local pub approximately 400m down the road.

Approved plans show a garden and parking for two cars

Planning Permission

Full planning permission No C/44/89A for conversion of barn into a 2-bedroom domestic accommodation to include kitchen, living room with 2 entrances, together with installation of package sewage treatment plant. Planning states the barn is to be repointed and roofed with 'Yorkshire Stone' to stay in keeping with the area.

Local occupancy clause within the North Yorkshire National Park boundaries.

Documents are available upon request.
