

Oakwood Estates is proud to present this truly unique and exceptional property—a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial five-bedroom, three-bathroom detached family home, accompanied by a beautifully converted four-bedroom barn with two bathrooms and a separate WC. With the added benefit of no onward chain. Designed with versatility in mind, this stunning property could be split into four separate living areas. This stylish and contemporary residence offers an abundance of space to suit a variety of lifestyles. Whether you're looking for a multi-generational family home, guest accommodation, or an additional workspace, this property provides the flexibility to tailor the space to your needs.

Tucked away at the end of a private lane, the home is nestled within a stunning plot of just under an acre, offering a sense of exclusivity, privacy, and serenity. The expansive grounds provide an idyllic setting, featuring beautifully landscaped gardens, mature trees, and open spaces ideal for outdoor activities, entertaining, or simply enjoying the peaceful surroundings. A key highlight of this remarkable property is the converted barn, which has been thoughtfully renovated to provide a fully equipped ancillary living space.

This secondary accommodation includes a spacious main reception room, four well-appointed bedrooms, two kitchens, two bathrooms, and a separate WC, making it ideal for extended family, and guests.

The expansive grounds ensure ample space for various outdoor pursuits, from gardening and leisure activities. Externally, a sweeping driveway welcomes you to the property, leading to the beautifully landscaped gardens that surround the home. An impressive feature of the outdoor space is the bespoke brick-built BBQ and bar area, perfect for hosting gatherings and making the most of the picturesque setting.

Combining elegance, practicality, and an exceptional location, this property offers a rare opportunity to own a home that seamlessly blends luxurious living with a perfect work-life balance. Whether you seek a tranquil countryside retreat, a dynamic family home, or an investment opportunity, this residence provides it all.
