The open plan layout at the rear is perfect for family entertaining with a large dining area, side aspect window and stairs leading to the first floor. The ground floor is completed with a conservatory that enjoys panoramic views of the garden with doors opening out.

The first floor houses the four bedrooms and the bathroom facilities. The master bedroom is a large front aspect room with a built in wardrobe and its own en suite shower room. There are three further bedrooms with a front aspect double bedroom, a rear aspect double with built in wardrobes and a further rear aspect bedroom. There is also a handy landing cupboard and a family bathroom which is fitted with a panelled bath with over head shower, basin and WC.

The rear garden is fully enclosed and is mostly laid to lawn with a shingled path, patio areas and is filled with colour from a selection of flowers, plants and mature shrubbery. The garden is a tranquil space and is perfect for al fresco dining.

LOCATION

An important wool-producer in the Middle Ages, Axbridge has always been at the centre of things. Indeed, in earlier times, it was a river port. This was reflected in its early charters allowing it to hold markets, fairs and become a royal borough. It even had its own mint, with coins showing the town's symbol - the Lamb and Flag. The layout of the town has changed little over the centuries, a medieval town expanding on a fortified Saxon burgh and even today visitors can wander the winding streets that remain at the heart of this charming place and soak up hundreds of years of the histories of ordinary lives. Axbridge is well located for commuting to local business centres of Wells, Cheddar, Weston-super-Mare and Bristol via the nearby M5 and A38. Bristol international Airport is 15 minutes drive away.
