The Property

There are two entrance doors. The main door leading into the kitchen/dining room and another into the delightful sitting room. The ground floor accommodation comprises a double aspect sitting room with modern large sash windows providing a good degree of light. The stairs rise from here to the first floor and there is a large under stairs storage cupboard.

The adjoining kitchen/dining room is fitted with a range of cream base and wall units with wooden worktops allowing space and plumbing for a range of appliances such as a washing machine, fridge freezer, oven and dishwasher. The wall mounted boiler is positioned in a corner wall cabinet.

From the sitting room stairs lead up to a first floor landing area with storage cupboard, a beautifully appointed family bathroom with shower above the bath and two bedrooms.

Grounds & Gardens

Set back from Rhinefield Road, the development is accessed via a gravel driveway leading to a large parking area providing ample off road parking facilities and access to the garage in a nearby block.

The beautifully maintained communal grounds are a particular feature and surround the property, being laid mainly to lawn, interspersed with a range of established trees and mature borders to the boundary.

Directions

From our office in Brookley Road turn right and proceed over the water splash to the end of the road. Turn right onto Rhinefield Road and proceed past the church on the right. After approximately two hundred yards there is a right turn onto a gravelled track, where a white fence has a plaque displaying Knightwood Court. Proceed over the cattle grid into the private parking area.

This leafy village on the southern edge of the New Forest has everything you could want for family life in the Forest

The Local Area

It is Brockenhurst's mainline station (service into London Waterloo approximately 90 minutes) that turns the dream of a country idyll into reality for those working up in London and makes Brockenhurst village a property hot spot.

Brockenhurst is the largest village in the New Forest, a thriving and lively mix of community and cachet, quality and quirky with all the necessary essentials of a proper working village - butcher, bakery and greengrocer, full quota of cafes and tea houses, plus services such as doctor, dentist and bank. Work into the equation the unexpected and the glamorous: a wine and cheese cellar, premier golf course, luxurious spa and top restaurants such as The Pig (the first in the group of hip country house hotels) and Cambium (fine dining at Careys Manor).

It all makes Brockenhurst a gem in the heart of the Forest. Property ranges from Edwardian villas to thatched timber-framed cottages, and imaginative new builds to old Forest lodges. Many properties have access or views to open Forest and almost all are within walking distance of the station.

Important Notice

Spencers of The New Forest would like to point out that all measurements set out in these particulars are approximate and are for guidance only.
